

Quiz for
Immigration of Adopted and Prospective Adopted Children
M-249

(Questions are 10 points each; 80% correct required)

Name _____

Date _____

1. The fastest way to begin an adoption is to begin by filing the I-600 form with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). T or F
2. A prospective adoptive parent (PAP) must be a married U.S. citizen in order to adopt. T or F
3. An adopted child must qualify for an immigrant visa just like any other immigrant. T or F
4. USCIS will schedule the PAP for finger printing after receiving the I-600a application. T or F
5. A favorable home study is required by U.S. immigration law. T or F
6. PAP are not cautioned to avoid fraudulent practices. T or F
7. USCIS decides whether the PAP are able to take care of orphans properly. T or F
8. A child must be abandoned before he or she can be adopted. A relinquishment of a child by a biological parent to the PAP does not constitute abandonment. T or F
9. Not all children adopted abroad are orphans. T or F
10. "Orphan" is defined, in part, as a child under the age of 16 years. T or F

Upon completion, fax to 815-572-0669 for scoring.